MEREDITH GRAY & GREGORY McELROY JR.

College sweethearts Meredith Gray and Greg McElroy met at the University of Alabama in 2008. Although usually calm and collected, the college football quarterback and SEC Network analyst was nervous as he asked Meredith to marry him amid the romantic grounds of Lee Park. They opted for a simple ceremony on February 21, 2015, at the site of their engagement, followed by a party at Arlington Hall, which matched their timeless taste. —E.W.
